Index for 1953

This index of all NEW LEADER articles for 1953 is divided into three sections:

Section 1, Index of Authors,* lists the names of all NEW LEADER contributors, whether writers of articles, book reviewers, columnists or authors of letters to the Editor. The name of the contributor is followed by the date or dates on which his contribution(s) appeared. The date is given by month and day (example: 5/4 is May 4).

Section 2, Index of Subjects,* arranges all articles, columns, significant editorials and letters to the Editor according to subject. Under each subject are listed the titles, authors and dates of relevant articles.

Section 3, Index of Books Reviewed,* lists all books reviewed in the NEW LEADER literary section. These are arranged alphabetically according to the name of the books' authors. The author of the book is listed first, then the book's title, then the name of the reviewer and date of the review.

Example:* Shakespeare, William: Romeo and Juliet. (Charles Lamb) 5/4

This brilliant 16-page analysis of American freedom today, first published on May 4, is now in its third printing. Acclaimed by educators and political scientists as a model of clarity and objectivity, it is now more timely than ever. Sidney Hook's penetrating discussion of the issues which make headlines every day is a must for every informed citizen. Individual copies are still available at 15 cents each, or a dozen for $1.50. Bundle rates on request.
